NARI has named Kingdom & Co., a Las Vegas-based firm, a Regional Remodeler of the Year (RotY™) winner in the Residential Interior Over $500,000 category.

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES, February 17, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI) has named Kingdom & Co., a Las Vegas-based luxury design-build firm, a 2026 Region 6 Northwest Regional Remodeler of the Year (RotY™) winner in the Residential Interior Over $500,000 category for its acclaimed Lexington Remodel.

Award-winning home

The award recognizes exceptional achievement in design excellence, craftsmanship, and execution, placing Kingdom & Co. among the most respected remodeling firms in the region.

Brian Horner, Owner and Founder

Each year, NARI honors members whose projects exemplify the highest standards in the remodeling industry. The Remodeler of the Year (RotY™) Awards are judged by industry experts and peers based on design, functionality, innovation, problem-solving, and quality of execution. With hundreds of entries submitted nationwide, this year's competition represented nearly $138 million in remodeling projects, with 159 Regional winners selected.

“Each year, NARI members bring their best work forward through the RotY Awards, representing the highest level of excellence in the remodeling industry,” said Tracy Wright, CAE, CNAP, NARI Co-CEO. “This year’s entries reflected remarkable innovation and problem-solving, and we are excited to honor the exceptional craftsmanship and creativity of our members.”

All Regional Winners will be formally recognized, and National Winners announced, during NARI’s Evening of Excellence on April 23, 2026, at the NARI Annual Conference in Tempe, Arizona. For more information, visit nari.org.
