

Mississippi Transit Agencies Expand Accessible Transportation Services Statewide

Mississippi transit agencies expand wheelchair-accessible, door-to-door transportation statewide, improving access to healthcare, jobs, and daily needs.

MISSISSIPPI, MS, UNITED STATES, February 20, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A coalition of Mississippi transportation providers has announced the continued expansion of accessible transit services across the state. Participating agencies include Sunflower-Humphreys Counties Progress, Inc.; Claiborne County Human Resource Agency; Noxubee County Human Resource Agency; Five County Community Transportation; and Bolivar County Council on Aging, Inc.

The collaborative effort is designed to strengthen transportation access in both rural and urban communities. Services help seniors, individuals with disabilities, workers, students, and families reach essential destinations such as medical appointments, employment centers, grocery stores, educational institutions, and community programs.

Service Overview

The expanded transit network provides door-to-door transportation for residents who may not have access to reliable travel options. All participating agencies operate wheelchair-accessible vehicles and offer services tailored to seniors, individuals with disabilities, and residents without personal transportation.
