

Bella Fine Art Presents Sonoran Serenade Featuring Stuart Yankell and Never-Before-Seen Works

Bella Fine Art hosts Stuart Yankell's Sonoran Serenade, unveiling never-before-seen desert-inspired works in Scottsdale.

SCOTTSDALE, AZ, UNITED STATES, February 21, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bella Fine Art proudly announces Sonoran Serenade, an exclusive gallery-wide exhibition featuring internationally collected artist Stuart Yankell, debuting never-before-seen works inspired by the Sonoran Desert and beyond. The artist opening will take place on Thursday, March 12, from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at Bella Fine Art in Old Town Scottsdale.

This highly anticipated exhibition showcases Yankell's signature fluid figures — expressive, movement-driven compositions that capture people in joyful motion across rooftops, cafés, tango halls, and desert landscapes. While his body of work spans global destinations including Argentina and Europe, Sonoran Serenade highlights works centered in Arizona, celebrating the color, warmth, and vibrant social energy of the Southwest.

About Stuart Yankell

Stuart Yankell is known for his distinctive style that portrays figures in motion — often described as lyrical, fluid, and emotionally uplifting. His paintings capture moments of joy: couples dancing tango, friends gathered on rooftops, and communities alive with shared experience.

With collectors across the United States and abroad, Yankell's work blends impressionistic movement with contemporary storytelling. His Arizona-inspired pieces evoke the light, rhythm, and social vibrancy of the Southwest, making them especially resonant for regional and national collectors alike.
