

Aaron Jacobs & The Swing Tones 'Wall of Sound' Experience

The Swing Tones 7-vocalist “wall of sound” bring their electrifying 13-piece vocal jazz big band to Catalina w/reimagined current & timeless high-octane hits

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, February 21, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Where Pop Classics Meet Big Band Brilliance: Aaron Jacobs & The Swing Tones Take the Stage at Catalina Jazz Club

Aaron Jacobs & The Swing Tones bring their electrifying 13-member vocal jazz big band to Catalina Jazz Club on Friday, April 30, 2026, delivering a bold, crowd-igniting night where modern pop meets classic swing. Anchored by a seven-vocalist “wall of sound,” the ensemble reimagines today’s hits and timeless favorites alike—transforming songs from Shawn Mendes to Motown to the Bee Gees into lush, high-octane big band arrangements.

Known for their magnetic stage presence and deeply engaging performances, Aaron Jacobs & The Swing Tones don’t just perform for an audience—they bring the room with them, leaving crowds singing, dancing, and smiling long after the final note fades. “One thing I love more than all else,” said Aaron Jacobs, bandleader “is finding that hidden gem of harmonic sounds embedded into all of our favorite tunes. As a performer and as an audience member, these arrangements bring such life and excitement to songs that continue to stand the test of time.”

The Swing Tones, a Downtown Disney favorite and flagship ensemble of Aaron Jacobs Productions, are Los Angeles’ premier 13-piece vocal jazz big band. Led by KPFK radio host Aaron Jacobs, the group fuses the nostalgic glamour of classic swing with bold, “swingafied” reinterpretations of modern pop.

The Swing Tones have performed at renowned venues including Tropicana Laughlin, Herb Alpert’s Vibrato Grill Jazz, The Write-Off Room, and the Downtown Disney Mainstage. Their repertoire spans beloved vocal jazz standards—from Manhattan Transfer favorites like Boy From New York City and Operator to Andrews Sisters classics such as Sing, Sing, Sing and Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy—alongside original arrangements that reimagine artists from Motown to Oingo Boingo to Shawn Mendes and Jessie Ware.

Known for their infectious energy and lush vocal harmonies, The Swing Tones’ retrofitted take on modern music keeps audiences swinging, smiling, and coming back for more.

where every night her mother Maria would greet each guest as family and share in their love of music. Housed in Hollywood and decked out in a timeless charm, the club offers a cozy ambience under sparkling stage lights garnished with its signature concoction — Jazz. The first artist to grace the stage was the masterful flutist and saxophonist Buddy Collette, and ever since then, over the past 38 years, the Catalina Jazz Club has hosted the most illustrious legends of all time — from the powerful puffers of Dizzy Gillespie to the electrified fingers of McCoy Tyner, the bubbly belt of Dee Dee Bridgewater and Lynda Carter, the flirtatious saxophone of Joshua Redman, the slick strumming of Kenny Burrell, the insane drum clinic of Steve Gadd, the romance of Steve Tyrell, and the masterclass of Mike Stern.

The Swing Tones ode to Nighthawks

For Catalina, Jazz is our way of life. It breathes pain. It knows love. It dreams hope. It bleeds courage. Whether we're showcasing Broadway, Soul, R&B, or stand-up comedy, the lesson learned from all the greats who have serenaded our spirits is how to connect to one another. And that's why the Catalina Jazz Club will always have a table ready for you.

The Catalina Jazz Club has been honored by A.S.M.A.C., California Jazz Foundation, Los Angeles Jazz Society, and a City of Los Angeles Certificate of Appreciation on their 25th Anniversary, which was awarded by Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa and the LA City Council which included then City Council member and current Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti.
