

Entries Now Open for MEED Projects Awards 2026 in Association with Mashreq

Regional awards invite submissions recognising excellence in design, engineering and construction across the Middle East and North Africa

DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, February 23, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The MEED Projects Awards 2026 in association with Mashreq have officially opened for entries, inviting companies, developers, contractors and project teams to submit their projects for the region's most prestigious construction awards.

For over 15 years, the MEED Projects Awards have celebrated the Middle East and North Africa's most ambitious and transformative projects, recognising technical excellence, innovation, sustainability and delivery impact. Past editions have highlighted landmark developments that set new benchmarks for the region's built environment, including internationally recognised projects such as Burj Khalifa and Louvre Abu Dhabi.

"The MEED Projects Awards are the gold standard for recognising outstanding achievements in construction across MENA, showcasing the region's technical and design excellence while bringing the industry together to celebrate and connect over the very best projects of the year," said Ed James, Head of Content and Research at MEED.

"As a long-standing partner of the MEED Projects Awards, Mashreq is proud to support a programme that is recognised for its independence, credibility and industry impact. These awards celebrate projects that set benchmarks for excellence and contribute meaningfully to the region's development", said Arun Mathur, Executive Vice President and Global Head of
