

See-Saw by Arthur Day Explores Tension, Secrets, and Survival

SIMSBURY, CT, UNITED STATES, February 23, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Books To Life Marketing proudly announces the release of See-Saw, a suspenseful and emotionally charged thriller by Arthur Day, exploring the precarious balance between love, identity, and the deadly consequences of secrets.

"If you cut us, we all bleed red," says Arthur Day, reflecting the raw humanity woven through the pages of his latest novel. "No matter who we are or how different we may seem, our stories intersect in powerful and unexpected ways."

ABOUT THE BOOK

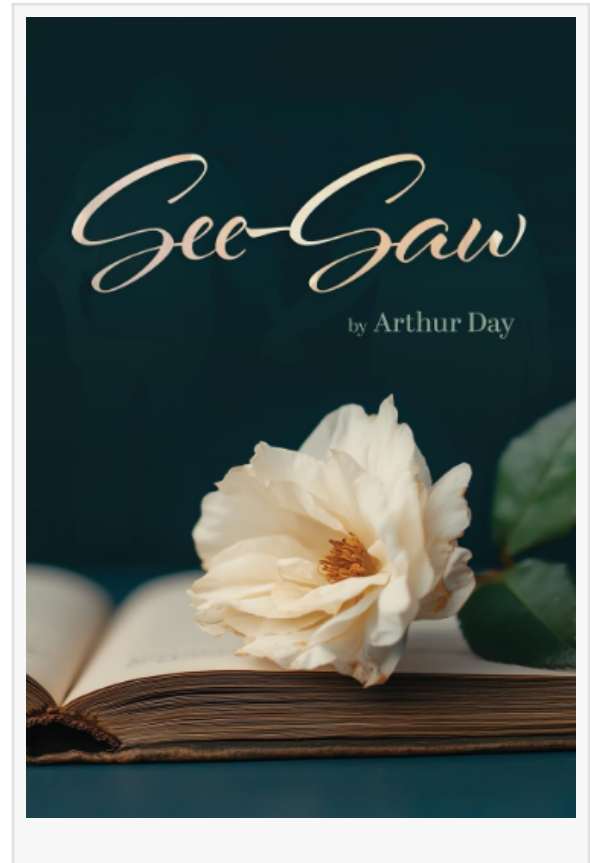

See-Saw dives into a high-stakes mystery set during the height of the COVID-19 pandemic. The story follows transgender woman Dianne Vargas and her partner MJ McCaal, who are preparing to begin a new chapter of life together through marriage. But before they can celebrate, they are thrust into a chilling investigation: a brutal double murder outside a local bar.

Enlisted by County Sheriff John Buckmaster, Dianne and MJ race to uncover the truth behind the deaths of two women. Unbeknownst to Dianne, an even greater danger lurks in the shadows—a psychopathic killer stalking her every move. The threat stems from a photograph she once took of a cheating husband, leading to a vengeful hitman now targeting her.

A mix of romance, identity, intrigue, and heart-pounding suspense, See-Saw delivers a riveting page-turner that keeps readers on edge from start to finish.
