Manhattan attorney Dan Buzzetta's latest blockbuster legal thriller, The Winter Verdict, is a chilling, captivating and confident new read. In The Winter Verdict, young lawyer protagonist Tom Berte's bucolic new life is about to be shattered by a threat he can't ignore.

About The Winter Verdict: Tom Berte, a former Department of Justice lawyer, thought he'd left his past behind when he moved to Castle Ridge with his family. But when a brutal attack leaves him fighting for his life, Tom and his family find themselves at the epicenter of an unfolding conspiracy that stretches from the local ski resort to a desert compound on the other side of the world.

At the heart of the mystery is Phoenix Holdings Group, a shadowy international conglomerate with its sights set on Castle Ridge Ski Resort. When a catastrophic "accident" at the resort claims dozens of lives, Tom uncovers a chilling connection to his own assault and a ruthless plot that could endanger millions.

With his wife and daughter's lives hanging in the balance, Tom must navigate a treacherous path of legal intrigue, corporate espionage, and looming revenge.

A heart-pounding legal thriller —where the pursuit of justice is as precarious as a black diamond run—The Winter Verdict delivers thrills, chills, and pulse-quickening suspense. Buzzetta brings the heat in this high stakes, high intensity, high octane thriller.
