

The Pickled Beet Announces Their Client Services Specialist, Nicole Gates, as a Chucks & Cocktails 2026 Honoree

MIAMI, FL, UNITED STATES, February 24, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Pickled Beet, South Florida's award-winning gourmet chef and culinary services company, announces their Client Services Specialist, Nicole Gates, as a Chucks & Cocktails: When Women Lead 2026 Honoree.

The State Senator Shevrin Jones and Miami Dade-County Mayor Daniella Levine Cava, invited Gates to be recognized as one of this year's honoree's of Chucks & Cocktails: When Women Lead. The evening celebrates women whose leadership, courage, and impact continue to shape our communities and inspire progress.

I'm thrilled for Nicole Gates and this honor. We look forward to celebrating her positive leadership and impact that she continues to make at The Pickled Beet and in our community.”

Elizabeth Willard, Founder and CEO of The Pickled Beet

Gates is an advertising and media marketing expert, with years of sales management experience. She received her education at Columbus State University, majoring in Communications with an emphasis in Marketing. She has worked in television hosting, broadcast, print journalism, and as motivational speaker.

At The Pickled Beet, Gates serves as the primary point of contact for all clients- keeping track of clients' food preferences and travel schedules, booking private chef experiences and catering orders for private inflight dining, and serving as a community liaison. She also manages administrative and operational tasks and coordinates The Pickled Beet's participation in community events.

Chucks & Cocktails: When Women Lead, is on Sunday, March 15th at the Museum of Contemporary Art (MOCA) in North Miami, Florida. The evening brings together civic leaders, changemakers, and community champions for an experience that blends culture, conversation, and celebration. The program will highlight the power of women leading with authenticity, vision, and purpose.
