most comprehensive precision medicine and integrated wellness center, proudly announces the opening of its new location serving the North Atlanta area. NuVitalé brings an unmatched suite of advanced services in longevity, hormone optimization, aesthetic enhancement, and recovery therapies, delivering a coordinated, whole-body approach that goes far beyond traditional care models.

Founded with the mission of helping individuals unlock lasting vitality, NuVitalé integrates board-certified physicians, sports chiropractors, regenerative medicine specialists, and aesthetic experts under one roof. This unique team-based model ensures every patient receives a personalized, data-driven plan tailored to their biology, goals, and lifestyle.

“At NuVitalé, we believe true health and longevity come from treating the whole person, not just symptoms,” said Dr. Nadine Halliburton-Foster, Medical Director at NuVitalé. “Our integrated approach combines advanced diagnostics, hormone optimization, regenerative therapies, aesthetic medicine, and performance recovery modalities in a way that cannot be found elsewhere in the Atlanta area. We are not simply reacting to health concerns, we are optimizing human potential across every stage of life.”

Distinctive Services That Set NuVitalé Apart

NuVitalé offers a broad spectrum of services that place it at the forefront of modern wellness and longevity medicine:

Advanced Longevity and Precision Medicine

Utilizing next-generation diagnostics such as DEXA body composition scans, PNOE metabolic analysis, genetic testing, and comprehensive hormone panels to detect underlying biological imbalances and create personalized optimization strategies.

Hormone Optimization and Regenerative Therapies

Customized hormone balance programs for men and women, peptide therapy, hyperbaric oxygen therapy, red light and PEMF treatments, IV nutrient infusions, and recovery-focused modalities designed to enhance energy, resilience, and performance.

Medical Aesthetics and Cosmetic Regeneration

State-of-the-art aesthetic treatments including microneedling, candela matrix RF skin rejuvenation, hydrodermabrasion, laser hair removal, and more, all integrated with internal wellness for a synergistic inside-out effect.

Performance, Recovery and Chiropractic Care

Sports performance chiropractic and injury recovery therapies targeting joints, muscles, and movement optimization to support athletes and active individuals.

Concierge Medicine

Holistic care plans designed for busy families, combining in-clinic and telehealth support to address prevention, early detection, and long-term wellness across generations.

NuVital's integrated model eliminates the fragmented care often seen in traditional medical settings, ensuring that every specialist collaborates on a unified plan for the patient.
