Ashley Paul has carved a distinctive lane within the international dance and pop crossover space, supported by strong chart performance, global radio support, and continued international touring momentum. She co-writes many of her songs with Luv Foundation UK and acclaimed producer and creative Lucas Marx, with whom she is currently back in the studio developing a new pop dance track for an upcoming film.

She also maintains a creative partnership with music industry executive Joel Diamond, with whom she achieved a Billboard hit with "When Boys Cry," as well as a recent #6 StoneBridge remix on the Music Week Pop Charts titled "Body Language." Additionally, Ashley recorded a duet with Deniece Pearson of Five Star, co-writer of "Finding Rhythm," hitting #5 on Music Week Pop Chart.

With growing global radio traction and an unmistakable dancefloor presence, Ashley Paul continues to solidify her position as a rising force within the international dance scene.
