

Leving Law Firm Matrimonial Law Seminar: Identifying Potential Medical Negligence and Catastrophic Injury Claims

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, February 24, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The nationally acclaimed Law Offices of Jeffery M. Leving, Ltd. will host the next presentation of the Arthur S. Kallow Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Seminar Series on February 25th at 6:30 p.m. CST at 225 W. Wacker Drive in Chicago.

This seminar will focus on identifying complex and high-stakes legal claims, including cases involving catastrophic injuries. The CLE speakers will explore how to best identify causes of action to best serve clients in pursuing personal injury and medical negligence cases, helping identify viable legal pathways to achieve optimal results.

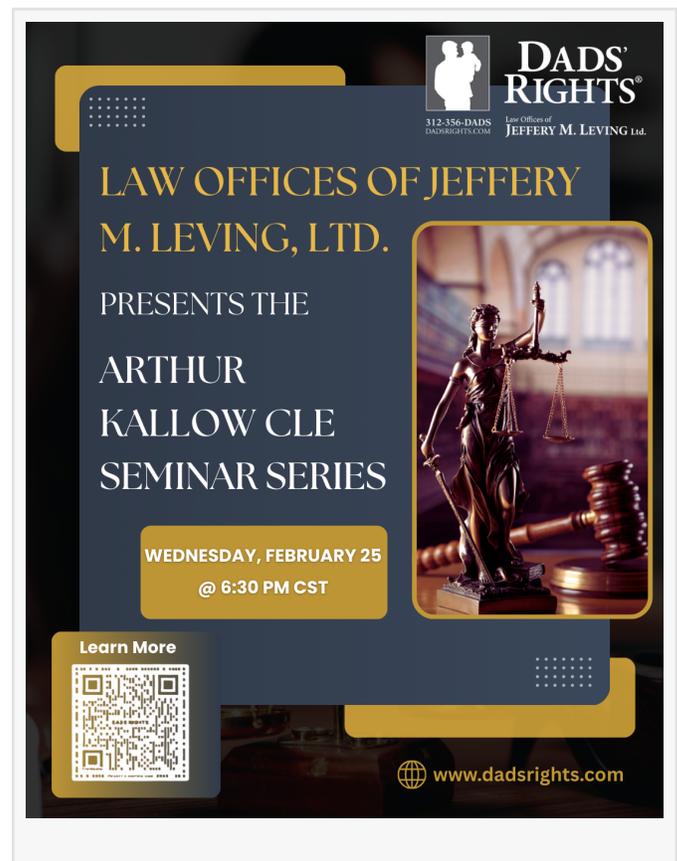

This seminar will also highlight best practices in managing sensitive, high-value, and multifaceted litigation, emphasizing a strategic and detail-oriented approach to winning client advocacy.

“Our mission is to continue to win for our clients and their families during their most difficult and darkest times,” said attorney Jeffery M. Leving, founder and president of the firm, who will facilitate the seminar. “I've been fighting for fathers' rights and their children for over 40 years. I see a need to protect victims of catastrophic accidents and medical negligence if a client or a loved one has fallen victim.”

The presentation will be followed by a question-and-answer session.
