Trichloroethylene, Perchloroethylene, and Carbon Tetrachloride"

(<https://www.jdsupra.com/legalnews/epa-issues-final-risk-management-rules-4701644/>).

Lynn L. Bergeson has earned an international reputation for her deep and expansive understanding of how regulatory programs pertain to nanotechnology, industrial biotechnology, synthetic biology, and other emerging transformative technologies. Ms. Bergeson counsels corporations, trade associations, and business consortia on a wide range of issues pertaining to chemical hazard, exposure and risk assessment, risk communication, minimizing legal liability, and evolving regulatory and policy matters. She served as chair of the American Bar Association (ABA) Section of Environment, Energy, and Resources and as chair of the International Bar Association (IBA) Agriculture and Food Section. She has served on the Board of Directors of the Environmental Law Institute (ELI), the NanoBusiness Commercialization Association, and is a recent past President of the Product Stewardship Society. Ms. Bergeson is a Fellow of the American College of Environmental Lawyers (ACOEL) and serves as a Regent and on its Executive Committee. Ms. Bergeson is also President of The Acta Group (Acta®) and B&C® Consortia Management, L.L.C. (BCCM).

Carla N. Hutton regularly authors reports and assessments of regulatory and legislative developments for B&C clients. She is a coauthor of many of the books written by B&C, including "Chemical Product Law and Supply Chain Stewardship: A Guide to New TSCA," ABA Book Publishing (2025); "Guide to the Toxic Substances Control Act (TSCA)," LexisNexis (2025); and "New TSCA: A Guide to the Lautenberg Chemical Safety Act and Its Implementation," ABA Section of Environment, Energy, and Resources (2017). Her writing has also appeared in Chemical Watch, BNA Daily Environment Report, and Nanotechnology Now.
