

Award Winning Plastic Surgeon Opens New Facility in Greater Philadelphia Area

From Park Avenue to Pennsylvania, Dr. Charles Herman brings over 20 years of world-class plastic surgery to patients from all over the world in his new location

BLUE BELL, PA, UNITED STATES, March 2, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Considered an authority on many of the procedures that he performs, Charles K. Herman, M.D., is a recognized leader in cosmetic surgery of the face and body. An editor of four major plastic surgery textbooks and over 100 journal articles, Dr. Herman not only brings an impeccable record of safety and quality to his patients but he has also been a pioneer in the development of many procedures that are popular today, including body contouring after weight loss, breast implant and lift surgery, and modern facelift techniques.

Herman Aesthetiques is Dr. Herman's new state-of-the-art plastic surgery office and medspa in Blue Bell, PA, conveniently located near Philadelphia, New Jersey, the Main Line, Bucks County, Lehigh Valley and the Poconos. It easily accessible from several nearby airports including Philadelphia International Airport and Newark Airport, as many of Dr. Herman's patients travel both domestically and internationally for his care, from models to actors and actresses to political figures to your next-door neighbor. The office is also less than two hours from New York City where Dr. Herman maintained offices for almost 20 years on Manhattan's "Gold Coast" of Park Avenue and Fifth Avenue, allowing his New York City patients to continue receiving the care they trust with only a short drive. Dr. Herman performs surgery in his private office as well as at Temple University Health System/Chestnut Hill Hospital in Northwest Philadelphia's upscale historic Chestnut Hill neighborhood where he serves as Director of Cosmetic Surgery Services.

Board Certified Plastic Surgeon Dr. Charles Herman
