

Pocfarmer Announces Strategic Partnership with Multiple Lettuce Farms in Salinas Valley

$5 Million Investment to Drive Operational Efficiency, AgTech Adoption, and Market Expansion

DENVER, CO, UNITED STATES, February 26, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Pocfarmer, a globally leading agricultural finance and integrated industry service provider, today announced a strategic partnership with multiple lettuce farms in California's Salinas Valley. Under the agreement, Pocfarmer will invest USD 5 million over the next year to enhance farm operational efficiency, accelerate the adoption of advanced agricultural technologies, optimize production processes, and support broader market expansion.

Located along California's central coast, Salinas Valley is widely recognized as one of the world's premier lettuce-growing regions and is often referred to as the "Salad Bowl of the World." The region plays a vital role in the U.S. leafy greens industry, supported by advanced farming practices, experienced growers, and a well-established supply chain infrastructure.

The strategic collaboration will focus on several key areas:

Pocfarmer Announces Strategic Partnership with Multiple Lettuce Farms in Salinas Valley

Founded in 2019, Pocfarmer is a comprehensive agricultural finance and industry solutions provider operating across the Americas, Europe, Africa, and Asia. The company delivers end-to-end value chain solutions, including project financing support, agricultural management technologies, product processing coordination, logistics services, and sales channel development. By integrating upstream and downstream resources, Pocfarmer aims to provide systematic and scalable solutions to agricultural enterprises and producers worldwide.

A spokesperson for Pocfarmer stated:

“This partnership with leading lettuce farms in Salinas Valley represents a significant step in strengthening our presence in the North American agricultural sector. By combining financial support with technological empowerment, we are committed to driving sustainable growth for our partners and enhancing the efficiency and stability of the global agricultural supply chain.”

As the global agriculture industry accelerates toward digitalization, sustainability, and operational optimization, integrated models that combine finance, technology, and value chain coordination are expected to play an increasingly critical role in modernizing traditional farming systems.

Pocfarmer will continue to expand strategic investments in key agricultural regions worldwide, reinforcing global food supply resilience while creating long-term value for producers, partners, and consumers alike.
