

Human Touch® Wins Four 2026 Platinum ADEX Awards for Design Excellence

AirTech ZG PRO, Gravis ZG Chair, Novo Flex, and Super Novo X Recognized for Innovation, Performance, and Design

LONG BEACH, CA, UNITED STATES, March 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Human Touch®, a global leader in high performance massage chairs and wellness solutions, has earned four 2026 Platinum ADEX (Awards for Design Excellence) Awards. The honors mark the company's 12th consecutive year of ADEX recognition and highlight innovation and design excellence across its zero gravity recliners and intelligent massage chair portfolio.

The 2026 Platinum-winning products include:

AirTech ZG PRO for Contract Lounge Recliners

The AirTech ZG PRO combines independent dual-motor zero gravity positioning with integrated air massage, heat, powered lumbar support, and antimicrobial SofHyde upholstery. Engineered for durability and comfort, it is designed for hospitality, healthcare, corporate, and fitness environments.

Gravis ZG Chair for Zero Gravity Recliners

The Gravis ZG Chair pairs ergonomic zero gravity support with powered adjustments, air massage, and multi-zone heat. Its clean, contemporary profile and app-enabled customization deliver therapeutic comfort within a refined, modern silhouette.

Your best. Every day.™

Novo Flex Massage Chair for Intelligent Acupressure Massage Chairs

The Novo Flex features the proprietary HT Flex S- and L-Track system for extended coverage from the spine to the glutes, along with 3D/4D massage programs, heated foot and calf massage, dual-lumbar heat, and guided Auto-Wellness programs. Its zero gravity position enhances full-body stretch and decompression.

Super Novo X Massage Chair for Intelligent Acupressure Massage Chairs

The Super Novo X showcases Human Touch's most advanced engineering, highlighted by DuoSync™ technology that delivers a synchronized, four-hand massage experience. With Virtual Therapist® voice control, Acupoint® body sensing, and immersive zero gravity positioning, it offers elevated personalization and performance. Its signature Teardrop Doors and customizable finishes make it as much a design statement as a wellness solution.

Established in 1995, the ADEX Awards are among the most recognized design competitions in the industry. Judged by a global advisory board of more than 1,750 professionals, the program honors outstanding innovation, functionality, and aesthetic excellence across product categories.

"The Platinum distinction is awarded to entries that meet a rigorous standard of design and performance," said Jay Chakraborty, Executive Director of Design Journal and the ADEX Awards. "Human Touch's 2026 honorees exemplify that level of discipline across its massage and zero gravity product categories."

“ADEX recognition reflects the design standards we hold ourselves to across every product we develop,” said David Wood, CEO of Human Touch. “Our focus remains on engineering performance driven wellness solutions that integrate seamlessly into both residential and professional environments.”
