

Sunny Glen Children's Home Seeks Fund Development Officer to Expand Hope Across Texas

Nearly 90-year-old Christian ministry seeks faith-driven professional to strengthen partnerships with Church of Christ congregations statewide

SAN BENITO, TX, UNITED STATES, March 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sunny Glen Children's Home, a Christ-centered ministry dedicated to nurturing children and families for nearly 90 years, is seeking a Fund Development Officer (Statewide) to represent its mission across Texas. This full-time position offers a unique opportunity for a faith-driven professional to build meaningful relationships with Churches of Christ congregations, donors, and community partners while helping sustain care for children who need it most.
A Legacy of Faith and Service

For nearly 90 years, Sunny Glen Children's Home has provided a safe, loving environment for children facing difficult circumstances. Rooted in the teachings of Scripture and guided by Christian principles, the organization has remained steadfast in its commitment to healing, hope, and restoration. Today, Sunny Glen continues this vital work through trauma-informed care and unwavering dedication to each child's spiritual, emotional, and physical well-being.

More Than Fundraising — A Ministry Calling

The Fund Development Officer position extends far beyond traditional fundraising. This role serves as a vital bridge between Sunny Glen's mission and the faith communities that support it. Sunny Glen seeks an outgoing individual who will travel frequently throughout Texas — including the DFW Metro, Houston Metro, Central Texas, the Rio Grande Valley, and the Panhandle — meeting with and speaking to Church of Christ congregations, Church Elders, individual donors, and organizations. The primary goal is to increase financial support for the mission of Sunny Glen: to provide a safe place for hurting children to heal while tending to their physical, mental, and spiritual needs. The ideal candidate must have strong familiarity and comfort with speaking to religious organizations and congregations about the needs of children.
