

EVERGLOW Releases 4th Mini Album, CODE

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, March 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Korean girl group EVERGLOW has released their 4th mini album, CODE, ahead of their upcoming world tour, RE:CODE. The release of CODE is their first album as four members and under their new management company CHXXTA COMPANY.

“Our new album, CODE, opens a new chapter for EVERGLOW, and presents a narrative that progresses from ‘awakening’ to ‘focus,’ ‘decoding,’ and ultimately to ‘connection’ through four tracks.” - SIHYEON, member of EVERGLOW

CODE has four total tracks, starting with the intro instrumental track, “BREAKOUT,” that sets the tone of the album, with the music itself signaling a new beginning and a leap into the future. The second track, “FOCUS,” portrays the moment in which all senses converge at once on oneself, and its heightened state of concentration transitions directly into the title track “CODE,” creating a pivotal turning point in the album’s narrative to break existing logic and algorithms set in place to amplify feelings of liberation and natural instincts flowing through and beyond control. “CODE” serves as the central axis of the album, most clearly expressing the universe lore and message EVERGLOW has chosen. The album closes out with “Can’t Be Broken”, with lyrics written by the EVERGLOW members in order to deliver a sincere and heartfelt message to their fans. It's a song with an alternative rock band sound as a base with pop-driven melodies representing the bond between EVERGLOW and their fandom, FOREVER, as they illuminate one another through countless challenges.

“This album most clearly delivers the sound and message we personally chose, and we hope it stays with you for a long time too.” - ONDA, member of EVERGLOW
