

2026 NH Liberty Forum to Host U.S. Senate Candidates Scott Brown and Aaron Day

NH Liberty Forum hosts Senate candidates Scott Brown and Aaron Day next Saturday to make their case to liberty interested voters. Will you attend?

CONCORD, NH, UNITED STATES, March 5, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The 2026 NH Liberty Forum will host two declared U.S. Senate candidates on Saturday, March 7, as part of its annual conference programming. Republican Scott Brown and Independent Aaron Day are scheduled to address attendees and outline their respective visions for representing New Hampshire in the United States Senate.

The candidate forum will take place during the broader NH Liberty Forum conference, which brings together individuals interested in public policy discussions related to limited government, free markets, civil liberties, and constitutional governance.

According to event organizers, each candidate will speak on issues of importance to attendees, including federal policy, fiscal responsibility, economic growth, and individual rights. The forum will provide an opportunity for participants to hear directly from both campaigns regarding policy priorities and governing approaches.

Jason Sorens

Eric Brakey, Executive Director of the Free State Project and lead producer of the 2026 NH Liberty Forum, will moderate the discussion.

“It is a sign of our growing political influence that statewide candidates recognize the importance of attending our events to meet and speak with Free State communities,” said Jason Sorens, Founder of the Free State Project and co-producer of the event.

The NH Liberty Forum is an annual conference hosted by the Free State Project since 2007. The 2026 theme is “Build Freedom.” In addition to the Senate candidate forum, the conference will feature panel discussions and presentations from authors, policy analysts, activists, entrepreneurs, and elected officials. The 2026 NH Liberty Forum will take place March 5–8 at the Grappone Conference Center in Concord, New Hampshire. Additional information and ticket details are available at NHLibertyForum.com.

The Free State Project, established in 2003, is an organization that encourages individuals who support limited government and individual liberty to relocate to New Hampshire. Organizers state that the initiative seeks to concentrate 20,000 participants in the state to advance those principles through civic engagement, entrepreneurship, and community involvement.
