LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, March 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nathalie Dubois and DPA are back the week of the biggest awards show with "the DPA Diamond Lounge 2026", featuring unique and amazing international brands throughout four suites in the garden of the Luxe Sunset Boulevard hotel. The event will feature a total of 33 worldwide brands, with many products to be gifted to guests attending the spectacular event.

DPA started its operations with Japan close to twenty years ago and opened an office in Tokyo with its Japanese partners in 2017. This year, DPA will once again create a small Japanese lounge with Soubou, where Japanese artisans will showcase their products to the DPA guests and the US market. Brands such as Kashiwaya, Sawada Shuzo, Harumaya Fukutarou, It Beauté, Keshiki Gallery, L'odeur de Kyoto, and Tatami Takaokaya, will present centuries-old, traditional products and techniques to the guests, including handbags made with Bamboo handles, delicious teas, sake, matcha, ikebana, tatamis, kimonos, and more.

Based in Japan and courtesy of DPA Partners (DPA's Japanese branch), Mirai, will showcase two beauty brands with innovative products: I'm Pinch and Ayune. More beauty products will also be provided by the Australian brand, Ere Perez (Goop's find).

Several high-end, luxury, and red-carpet brands will also be joining us: Von Vemian will once again have a selection of his most beautiful gowns to showcase; Miliani will also return to the DPA lounge with brand-new jewelry creations made with Tahitian black pearls. Cameo de Bore'Clutches, a brand inspired by a love of fashion and deep-rooted appreciation for elegance, will make its exhibit debut in the DPA lounge. The clutches, already featured in Neiman Marcus and Paris Fashion Week, are so unique and popular that you will see some of their designs on the red carpets of this award season.

One of DPA's favorites who will be returning is producer Maureen Meehan. The other talk of the suite will certainly be Norvoch Jewelry.
