Broker/Owner of RE/MAX Magnolia Emphasizes Client-Centric Approach and Agent Empowerment Across Fraser Valley

MISSION, BRITISH COLUMBIA, CANADA, March 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Michele Cummins Personal Real Estate Corporation, led by its broker and owner Michele Cummins, is a prominent provider of comprehensive real estate services in Mission, British Columbia, and the broader Fraser Valley region. Operating as RE/MAX Magnolia, the firm focuses on delivering dedicated client support through significant property transactions, leveraging over two decades of experience in British Columbia's dynamic market. The organization emphasizes a client-centric approach, viewing real estate as a service that requires careful guidance and deep market understanding.

With 22 years in the industry, Michele has established herself as a consistent performer, ranking among the top 1% of agents for over a decade. Her success is often attributed to a "Do What It Takes" philosophy, ensuring client needs are met with diligence. She holds specialized certifications, including those for new home construction and luxury marketing, complemented by advanced negotiation skills. Through RE/MAX Magnolia, Michele has created a unique "place of heart" that empowers real estate professionals with extensive tools, mentorship, and opportunities, aiming to enhance the overall quality of client service.

To further disseminate market insights and offer exposure for her team, Michele hosts the Lower Mainland's only dedicated real estate radio show on Country 107.1 FM, a program that has been broadcasting for eight years. This initiative provides valuable information to buyers and sellers
