

Dubai Property Exhibition Hosts 20 Leading Agencies as 'DPS Talks' Platform Launches

DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, March 5, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dubai Property Exhibition \(DPS\) today convened the owners and senior leaders of 20 leading real estate brokerage firms in Dubai for a closed-door industry dialogue, marking the launch of DPS Talks, a new platform designed to foster collaboration and strategic discussion across the sector.

The gathering brought together some of the most influential brokerage leaders in the market to discuss investor sentiment, responsible industry messaging, and the long-term positioning of Dubai as a global real estate investment hub.

Held at the Dubai Property Exhibition venue, the meeting focused on maintaining market confidence during periods of global uncertainty, while reinforcing Dubai's reputation as a stable and transparent investment destination.

Participants emphasized the importance of responsible industry communication, stronger collaboration between agencies and developers, and maintaining investor confidence through clear and consistent messaging.

"Moments of uncertainty test leadership within any industry," participants noted during the discussion.

"When the leading players in the market align around responsible messaging and long-term vision, it strengthens investor trust and reinforces Dubai's position as one of the world's most resilient

estate markets.”

The event also marked the launch of DPS Talks, a new discussion platform that will regularly bring together with developers, brokerage leaders, investors, and industry experts to exchange insights on market trends, innovation, and the future of real estate in Dubai.

Dubai Property Exhibition continues to position itself as a central hub for global real estate dialogue, bringing together key stakeholders to promote transparency, collaboration, and sustainable growth within the industry
