Morning Star Adoption Center

continues its mission of offering comprehensive support for expectant mothers facing unplanned pregnancies. The agency focuses exclusively on newborn adoption in Pontiac, MI, ensuring compassionate guidance for women considering this path, as well as those across the state.

Every adoption plan is unique, and Morning Star Adoption Center emphasizes that mothers are in control of their decisions. Services include personalized counseling, assistance in selecting an adoptive family, and the option to choose between open, semi-open, or closed adoptions. By centering its work on newborn adoption in Pontiac, MI, along with other Michigan communities, the agency helps mothers feel secure knowing their child will go directly to the adoptive family they have chosen, without placement in temporary foster care.

While headquartered in Southfield, Morning Star Adoption Center provides services statewide, including the Lower and Upper Peninsulas. The agency is committed to creating a positive experience by ensuring that expectant mothers are informed, supported, and respected throughout the process.

This initiative reflects the agency's long-standing dedication to helping mothers make thoughtful decisions that honor their child's future. By connecting families with safe, stable, and loving homes, Morning Star Adoption Center continues to serve as a trusted resource for women navigating the complexities of adoption.
