

Alejandro Hernandez III Introduces Administrative Oversight Protocol for High-Value Estate Administrations

Structured Framework Designed to Support Trustees, Executors, and Estate Counsel Managing Complex Real Asset Estates

MANHATTAN , NY, UNITED STATES, March 13, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Alejandro Hernandez III, Founder and Principal of ARH Global Advisors LLC, today introduced a structured Administrative Oversight Protocol designed to assist trustees, executors, and estate counsel administering high-value estates containing significant real estate and complex asset structures.

As estate administrations increasingly involve concentrated real estate portfolios, closely held operating entities, and multi-jurisdictional assets, fiduciaries face growing pressure to ensure transparency, documentation discipline, and strategic coordination throughout the administrative process. The Administrative Oversight Protocol developed by ARH Global Advisors provides an independent framework to strengthen fiduciary execution and protect estate value.

“High-value estates require disciplined administration and structured oversight,” Hernandez stated. “When estates include substantial real property or multi-entity ownership structures, fiduciaries benefit from a coordinated strategy that preserves asset value while maintaining compliance with fiduciary responsibilities.”

A Structured Approach to Estate Administration

The Administrative Oversight Protocol focuses on supporting fiduciaries and estate counsel in matters involving:

Strategic oversight of estate-held real property

Coordination of valuation, market strategy, and disposition planning

Documentation discipline and administrative transparency

Risk mitigation for trustees, executors, and fiduciaries
Alignment of real estate management with estate administration objectives

This framework is particularly relevant for estates with substantial property holdings in Manhattan and other major wealth centers, where real estate frequently represents a dominant portion of estate value.

Supporting Estate Counsel and Fiduciaries

ARH Global Advisors operates as a complementary advisory partner to a family's established professional team, collaborating with:

Trust and estate attorneys

Estate litigators

Court-appointed fiduciaries

Private trustees and family offices

The firm's approach reinforces structured execution without infringing upon legal or tax advisory authority.

"Estate administration is ultimately about stewardship," Hernandez added. "Our objective is to provide structured oversight that strengthens fiduciary process, preserves asset value, and supports the professionals responsible for guiding complex estates through administration."
