/EINPresswire.com/ -- ChangeNOW, a leading non-custodial exchange platform, has been recognized for its world-class operational maturity in the latest “Speed Benchmarks: Non-Custodial Swaps Comparison 2026” report. The findings show that ChangeNOW has successfully transformed execution speed into a competitive advantage, surpassing competitors in both fixed and floating rate models.

A speed benchmark report 2026 shows that ChangeNOW delivers one of the fastest crypto transaction speeds

The 2026 report follows the trail blazed by Swapzone’s mid-2025 “Speed First” outlook, which warned the industry that execution delays lead to structural financial risks for users. The new data shows that ChangeNOW took this insight to heart, optimizing its routing to achieve near-instant results.

Speed is a core pillar of user trust. In 2026, our goal is to eliminate barriers between traders and their funds, establishing near-instant settlement as the new standard for the crypto industry”

Pauline Shangett, Chief Strategy Officer at ChangeNOW

Key Performance Highlights:

Dual-Rate Dominance: ChangeNOW leads in both Fixed and Floating rate types, maintaining sub-median performance where others struggle with network lag.

USDT-ETH Efficiency: Achieved a 1-minute swap time against a 45-minute industry average.

SOL-USDT Performance: Logged a 1-minute completion time compared to the 11-minute market

Unrivaled Precision: A 99.97% accuracy rate, minimizing the gap between quoted and received amounts.

By consistently delivering results 10x to 45x faster than the market median, ChangeNOW is proving that the 2026 industry standard for non-custodial swaps has shifted from "minutes to hours" to "seconds to minutes."
