

LABRFF Orlando Returns for Second Edition with Expanded Program and Special Tributes to Brazilian Culture

The premier Brazilian film festival in Florida returns this May with over 25 films, including children's programming and a cinematic celebration of football.

ORLANDO, FL, UNITED STATES, March 9, 2026

/Einpresswire.com/ -- Following a successful inaugural edition, the Los Angeles Brazilian Film Festival Orlando (LABRFF Orlando) returns for its second year from May 7–10, 2026. The four-day event, held at the Studio Movie Grill in Kissimmee, continues its mission to strengthen cultural exchange and provide a high-profile platform for Brazilian cinema in the United States. This year's expansion follows an eighteen-year legacy in Los Angeles, during which the festival has screened over 1,000 films and honored 600 industry professionals.

The 2026 program features a selection of more than 25 films, complemented by industry panels and networking opportunities for filmmakers, producers, and industry players. Building on the success of previous years, the festival has curated specialized segments to reach a broader audience:

- Family & Children: A special selection for younger viewers aims to inspire the next generation through creative storytelling.
- Mother's Day Program: A dedicated lineup designed to create meaningful experiences for families during the holiday weekend.
- Cinefoot Partnership: A showcase of four short films focused on Brazilian soccer, highlighting one of the nation's most iconic cultural passions.

Building on a Strong Foundation

The festival's arrival on the Atlantic coast represents a significant growth for the LABRFF brand. The inaugural Orlando edition featured world premieres such as Maurício de Souza, O Filme and showcased works like Jorge da Capadócia and Dois é Demais em Orlando. By bringing together
