

Scaling the 'Expert': Expert AI Prompts Releases Toolkit Helping Coaches Turn 1:1 Advice into Scalable Digital Assets

Expert AI Prompts releases "Next Level Coaching," a new toolkit helping consultants use AI for business scaling, course creation, and client systemization.

TOWNSVILLE, QUEENSLAND, AUSTRALIA, March 12, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Expert AI Prompts, a leading provider of industry-specific AI workflow solutions, today announced the launch of Next Level Coaching With AI Prompts, a specialized digital toolkit designed to assist coaches and consultants in transitioning from high-touch, one-on-one service models to scalable, asset-based businesses.

The 'Next Level Coaching' toolkit provides over 50 expert prompts designed to help consultants scale.

AI is often viewed as a shortcut for the lazy, but for consultants, it is a leverage point for the brilliant”

The coaching industry has historically faced a "ceiling of complexity," where revenue growth is strictly limited by the hours a consultant can work. This new release addresses the urgent need for AI for business tools that go beyond basic administrative tasks, focusing instead on high-level intellectual property creation.

From Time-for-Money to Assets-for-Money

The "Next Level Coaching" toolkit treats personal AI not just as an assistant, but as a product development partner. It includes frameworks that help experts extract their unique methodologies and convert them into digital courses, structured coaching programs, and automated client nurture systems.

"Many experts are stuck in a cycle of repetitive delivery. They say the same things to different clients all day," says the Founder of Expert AI Prompts. "This toolkit allows them to digitize that wisdom. We are moving the conversation from 'how do I write an email' to 'how do I clone my expertise into a scalable course.' It is about turning a service business into a product business."

Key Features of the Toolkit:

- Curriculum Extraction: Prompts that interview the expert to outline course modules based on successful client outcomes.
- Client Systemization: Frameworks to generate standard operating procedures (SOPs) and client feedback loops.
- Scalable Feedback: Coaching tools that utilize AI to provide personalized feedback to groups, allowing coaches to serve more clients without diluting quality.

Empowering the Modern Knowledge Worker

Designed for the "Alex Rivers" persona—the ambitious but time-poor solopreneur—this release aligns with the company's "Rolling Thunder" strategy of Vertical Domination. By providing structured, context-rich prompts, Expert AI Prompts mitigates the common "Generic AI" problem where output lacks the nuance required for high-end consulting.

"AI is often viewed as a shortcut for the lazy, but for consultants, it is a leverage point for the brilliant," said a Lead Strategist at Expert AI Prompts. "Our prompts are engineered to respect the nuance of human coaching while removing the friction of content creation. It enables the 'Expert' to scale their impact without burning out."
