Volume 6: The Return of the Ultra-Difficult "Chunin Exams"

AWAJI, JAPAN, March 12, 2026
/EINPresswire.com/ -- The popular attraction "NARUTO & BORUTO Shinobi-Zato" at the Hyogo Prefectural Awaji Island Anime Park Nijigen no Mori will celebrate its 7th anniversary in spring 2026. To mark the occasion, the "Shinobi-Zato 7th Anniversary Event" will be held for a limited time starting March 20 (Fri).

The sixth phase of the anniversary celebration brings back the "Chunin Exams" on weekends and holidays from April 4 (Sat) to June 28 (Sun). Boasting a daunting 0.5% pass rate, this is the highest difficulty event in Shinobi-Zato, recreating the famous exams from the anime. The challenge consists of three stages: The First Stage: a true/false quiz, the second stage: A scroll-snatching battle, and the third stage: Top Secret (Details are revealed only to those who survive the first two stages.) Successful candidates will receive an original Shinobi-Zato Certificate of Passing. For participants who have passed previous exams and are already "Chunin," a new mission will be added: competing for a Letter of Recommendation to be promoted to "Jonin".
