Steady Market Growth in the Automotive Repair and Maintenance Industry

The automotive repair and maintenance market size has been increasing significantly, projected to grow from $1047.75 billion in 2025 to $1134.82 billion in 2026. This represents a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 8.3%. The market's expansion during this period has largely been fueled by a rise in vehicle ownership, a growing emphasis on safe mobility, development of automotive service infrastructure, an aging vehicle fleet, and the establishment of organized workshop networks.

The Automotive Industry's Role in Driving Market Expansion

The growth of the automotive industry itself is a crucial factor propelling the repair and maintenance market. This sector includes diverse companies engaged in designing, manufacturing, marketing, selling, and maintaining motor vehicles. Repair and maintenance services play a vital role in ensuring vehicles remain functional, safe, and durable. For example, according to a January 2024 report by the International Council on Clean Transportation, the share of plug-in electric vehicles in new vehicle sales rose from around 3% in early 2021 to nearly 7% in 2022, surpassing 10% by the third quarter of 2023. This increasing adoption of electric vehicles is one of the many influences driving the repair and maintenance market forward.
