Mattice](#), designed to delight young readers while supporting reading fluency development. This engaging story invites children to explore friendship, fun, and a touch of seasonal spookiness in a safe, entertaining way.

"It seems to me that the primary goal of every individual's life journey on this planet is to actively search out their own comfortable places in the world in which they feel they belong and to find lasting friendships with others at the same time."

— Marian A. Mattice, Author of The Spooky Haunted House

About the Book

Perfect for emergent and beginning readers, The Spooky Haunted House features colorful, cartoonish characters including three jack o'lanterns who turn into zombies, a clever ghost with a magical potion, and a mummy sporting a green mask. With a playful repetitive sentence and storyline pattern, this 33-page book encourages rereading, builds confidence, and makes early reading fun. Amazon reviews currently average 5 out of 5 stars.
