

AAIS Welcomes ePayPolicy to Partner Program to Advance Digital Payment Innovation

New Partner equips AAIS Members with secure, integrated payment solutions to streamline premium receivables and accelerate policy binding.

LISLE, IL, UNITED STATES, March 16, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The American Association of Insurance Services (AAIS) is pleased to announce that ePayPolicy has joined the AAIS Partner Program, further expanding the suite of innovative solutions available to AAIS Member carriers.

We are equipping our Members with a secure, integrated payments platform that streamlines premium collection, enhances the policyholder experience, and supports greater operational agility.”

For many insurance organizations, payments remain one of the most complex and time-consuming operational challenges. Through its integrated payments technology, ePayPolicy enables insurance organizations to offer flexible digital payment options while maintaining strong financial controls. The platform supports efficient premium collection, financing, and payables management, helping carriers operate with greater speed and accuracy.

“Digital payment solutions are not just a modern convenience – they are the industry standard,” said Mark Engels, Chief Executive Officer of ePayPolicy. “Policyholders expect the same credit card and ACH options they use elsewhere. ePayPolicy enables AAIS Members to accelerate both policy binding and receivables, while connecting seamlessly with most management systems to support a more comprehensive, end-to-end payment experience.”

ePayPolicy is committed to removing the friction from insurance payments. Working with AAIS extends ePayPolicy’s reach, providing more organizations access to the digital tools they need to optimize premium receivables. Through this collaboration, AAIS Members gain access to ePayPolicy’s capabilities that simplify payment operations and support more efficient premium processing.

“AAIS is committed to delivering forward-looking solutions that help our Members operate more efficiently and compete with confidence,” said Keith Wolfe, President and Chief Executive Officer of AAIS. “By welcoming ePayPolicy to our Partner Program, we are equipping our Members with a secure, integrated payments platform that streamlines premium collection, enhances the policyholder experience, and supports greater operational agility.”
