Every Thankful Greetings product is thoughtfully designed and carefully assembled with intention, reflecting the brand's commitment to quality, care, and a human-centered approach to small-business creation.

"We're incredibly honored to be part of both the America 250 and Freedom 250 programs," said Sarah Gausewitz, Founder of Thankful Greetings. "This anniversary is about remembering where we've been, reflecting on what we share, and carrying that meaning forward through the moments we mark together."

Items from the Thankful Greetings Freedom 250 collection created for national 250th anniversary commemorations.

Shoppers can explore the commemorative collections directly through Thankful Greetings' website:

America 250 Collection:

This anniversary is about remembering where we've been, reflecting on what we share, and carrying that meaning forward through the moments we mark together.”

Additional retail locations, event activations, and featured placements will be announced as the America 250 and Freedom 250 celebrations continue to unfold throughout the year.

About Thankful Greetings

Thankful Greetings is a woman-founded American brand that creates thoughtfully designed goods rooted in legacy, care, and meaningful everyday moments. The brand transforms simple objects into experiences that help people pause, reflect, and connect. Designed in California and produced and fulfilled through a dedicated small-business operation, Thankful Greetings is guided by the belief that how something is made matters just as much as what is made. The smallest details often carry the deepest meaning.
