Why Islamabad: Closing the ITIN Access Gap for the Middle East and Asia

An ITIN is the mandatory U.S. tax identification number for non-U.S. residents who need to file taxes, open U.S. business bank accounts, register on platforms like Stripe, PayPal, and Amazon FBA, form a U.S. LLC, or invest in U.S. real estate. Without an ITIN, foreign entrepreneurs are locked out of the U.S. financial system entirely.

Taxsym's Islamabad office eliminates both barriers through IRS-authorized local document certification.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is an IRS Certified Acceptance Agent (CAA)?

A CAA is authorized by the IRS to verify identity documents and certify passport copies for ITIN applications. This eliminates the need to mail original passports to the IRS. Taxsym is listed on the IRS.gov Acceptance Agent directory for both Pakistan and Argentina.

Can I get a U.S. ITIN without filing a tax return?

Yes. While the IRS traditionally requires a federal tax return (Form 1040-NR) to be attached to ITIN applications, Taxsym specializes in exception-based ITIN applications that do not require filing a tax return. Qualifying exceptions include opening a U.S. business bank account, forming a U.S. LLC, receiving payments through platforms like Stripe or PayPal, and third-party tax reporting obligations.

Can I get a U.S. ITIN from Pakistan, UAE, Saudi Arabia, India, or the Middle East without visiting the U.S.?

Yes. Taxsym offers a fully remote ITIN application process for applicants across Pakistan, the Middle East, South Asia, and East Asia. The entire process — from initial application to document certification to IRS submission - is managed online.

Any non-U.S. citizen without a Social Security Number who needs to file U.S. taxes, open a U.S. business bank account, receive payments through Stripe or PayPal, operate a U.S. LLC, or invest in U.S. real estate requires an ITIN.
