LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES, March 16, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The P1 Padel Las Vegas Open, one of the fastest-growing competitive padel events in the United States, will return April 24–26, 2026 at P1 Padel Las Vegas. Now in its third consecutive year linked to top tournament-level competition with the United States Padel Association (USPA), the event will once again be sanctioned as a USPA 2000 tournament, attracting elite USA players who will battle international talent for the top prizes.

The 2026 edition will feature PlaybyPoint as Title Sponsor, with additional partners including Osaka Sport as Official Apparel Sponsor, Siux as Official Tournament Ball, Estrella Galicia as Food & Beverage Sponsor, and Escapology as Leisure Sponsor.

The P1 Padel Las Vegas Open has quickly become a highlight of the U.S. competitive padel calendar,” Phil Martinez

With a $25,000 prize pool, the tournament continues its commitment to equality in sport by awarding equal prize money to the winners of both the men’s and women’s events.

“The P1 Padel Las Vegas Open has quickly become a highlight of the U.S. competitive padel calendar,” said tournament organizers. “As the sport continues to expand across North America, the support of PlaybyPoint and our partners allows us to deliver a world-class event while promoting fairness and equal opportunity through equal prize money.”

The event has 4 men's divisions and 3 ladies divisions which allows for a wide range of amateur players to gain experience and importantly earn USPA ranking points along side the national and international stars playing in the top division. Players will compete in a best-of-three sets format, with two matches guaranteed for all entrants using a star point system.
