

iFLY Opens New Indoor Skydiving Location in Miami

The new Miami facility offers indoor skydiving experiences, STEM field trips, and private events using the latest vertical wind tunnel technology.

MIAMI, FL, UNITED STATES, March 16, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- iFLY Indoor Skydiving is proud to announce the opening of its Miami, Florida location. Offering the same great iFLY experience that fliers have come to expect, the tunnel is the 42nd location in the country. Reservations are now available at iflyworld.com.

An iFLY guest experiences indoor skydiving inside the vertical wind tunnel.

The new iFLY location is complete with the latest vertical wind-tunnel technology, state-of-the-art media management systems and flying progression programs. The professionally designed facility welcomes both first-time fliers and experienced athletes, and offers STEM education events, private rooms for birthday parties and corporate meetings and more.

Everyone dreams they can fly, and now iFLY Miami will make that dream come true. Our expert instructors will teach you everything you need to know to literally take flight in our indoor wind tunnel.”
