

VANQUISH Brings Its Innovative Product Lines to Solar Projects

Engineered perimeter systems designed to enhance safety, security, and operational reliability for solar energy facilities.

LANDIS, NC, UNITED STATES, March 16, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- VANQUISH, a leader in mission-critical perimeter protection, announced today that its custom perimeter protection product lines are now available to solar projects nationwide.

With 25+ years of experience protecting substations for major utilities nationwide, VANQUISH's perimeter protection product lines offer solar farm developers and operators custom-designed solutions to protect and enhance their mission-critical infrastructure that cannot be achieved with chain-link fences.

This design flexibility makes VANQUISH's perimeter protection solutions a logical choice for the solar industry.

Our experience protecting utility substations allows us to bring that same level of safety and security to solar projects.”

VANQUISH*

“Solar facilities generate and manage enormous amounts of power, and the electrical environments inside them are more complex than many people realize,” said Donald E. Moore, Chief Executive Officer of VANQUISH. “Our experience protecting utility substations allows us to bring that same level of safety and security to solar projects.”
