I always feel that music is a bridge between hearts. Returning to the United States after so many years is very emotional for me.”

Yasmin Levy

The Miami concert will take place at First United Methodist Church of Miami in Downtown Miami, providing an intimate setting for an unforgettable evening of music and storytelling.

Renowned worldwide for her soulful interpretations of Ladino, the ancient Judeo-Spanish language, Levy breathes new life into centuries-old songs. Her music blends traditional Sephardic melodies with contemporary emotional expression, creating a sound that transcends borders, cultures, and generations.

Levy's performances carry echoes of history, love, longing, and resilience. Influenced by the rich musical traditions of the Mediterranean and the Middle East, her powerful voice transforms each concert into an intimate experience, deeply connecting with audiences and creating a shared space of emotion and timeless beauty.

Joined by her exceptional ensemble, Levy invites audiences into an evening of passion, vulnerability, and unforgettable musical storytelling. More than a concert, "One More Night with Yasmin Levy" is a journey through memory, heritage, and the universal language of the heart.

Reflecting on her return to the United States, Levy shares:
