

Popular Food Truck Brand Happi Pappi® Expands Fleet and Launches E-Commerce Sales Across the Southeast

What started as a single food truck with a loyal local following has now grown into one of the Southeast's emerging mobile event brands.

ATHENS, AL, UNITED STATES, March 18, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- What started as a single food truck with a loyal local following has grown into one of the Southeast's emerging mobile event brands. Athens-based entrepreneur Tyrone Harris has expanded Happi Pappi® into a scalable, multi-truck operation now serving high-volume festivals, corporate activations, and private events across the Southeast.

What began as Tyrone's single food truck concept has evolved into a scalable, multi-brand mobile operation featuring:

- Happi Pappi® Beignets (award-winning signature offering)
- Homemade Signature Hot Cocoa, now available in three flavors
- Bold Chicory Coffee
- Corndogg Cravins®, serving classic, freshly made corndogs

In addition to expanding its fleet across state lines, Happi Pappi® has extended its brand beyond events by offering its three Signature Hot Cocoa flavors and its popular Chicory Coffee for purchase online through www.happipappi.com and via Amazon. The move marks a strategic step into direct-to-consumer retail, allowing customers to enjoy the brand's signature flavors year-round.

With multiple trucks now operating throughout Alabama and neighboring Southeastern markets,
