ESET PRIVATE showcases custom security solutions at RSAC 2026

DUBAI , DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, March 18, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ESET, a global leader in cybersecurity, today announced that its ESET PRIVATE portfolio will be available to demo at RSAC 2026. ESET PRIVATE was developed to offer tailored and advisory-led cybersecurity for complex enterprise and public-sector environments, including Fortune 500 companies, defense organizations, critical infrastructure and public institutions.

"Enterprises and public sector organizations are looking for cybersecurity partners that can adapt to their reality — not the other way around," said Andrea Doyle, ESET Head of Corporate Solutions NORAM. "With ESET PRIVATE, we design, deploy, and operate purpose-built security solutions that integrate seamlessly into complex environments, delivering long-term resilience aligned with each customer's operational, regulatory and business requirements."

Leveraging over 30 years of cybersecurity experience and global threat intelligence, ESET PRIVATE provides robust digital security solutions and bespoke solutions — bringing together ESET's award-winning products with proprietary core technologies and expert personnel. Enabling companies to move past compliance requirements, ESET's multilayered security solutions combine the power of AI and human expertise and are available for cloud and on-premises environments.

Previously known as ESET Corporate Solutions, ESET PRIVATE delivers:
Custom design and builds: Advisory-led cybersecurity for complex enterprise and public-sector environments, custom designed and built to fit an organization's specific cybersecurity needs and requirements.
Modular solution portfolio: Customers can mix and match any combination of ESET PRIVATE solutions.

Cloud or on-premises solutions: Our solutions can seamlessly integrate around customers' complex infrastructures and business operations, with flexible deployment options.
Consultative approach: ESET provides expert advice based on in-depth industry knowledge.
End-to-end solutions: ESET PRIVATE supports long-term partnerships as well as ongoing solution life-cycle management.

Visitors heading to RSAC 2026 can visit booth N-5253 to receive a demo and talk to ESET PRIVATE leaders. Some of the solutions being presented at RSAC 2026 include ESET PRIVATE Air-Gapped Solutions, ESET PRIVATE Client Shield, ESET PRIVATE Scanning Solutions, ESET PRIVATE Managed Security, ESET PRIVATE Industrial Security, ESET PRIVATE Threat Intelligence and ESET PRIVATE Advisory, which can be deployed on their own or as part of a broader strategic transformation.
