

Private Jet Card Comparisons launches PJCC for Corporate Flight Departments

Corporate flight departments and companies that use business aviation now have access to updated third-party data to compare and benchmark supplemental lift

MIAMI, FL, UNITED STATES, March 19, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Managers of Corporate Flight Departments now have a reliable third-party data source to compare jet cards, memberships, and fractional supplemental lift solutions, benchmark ad-hoc charter pricing against guaranteed-price flight programs, and answer those never-ending "what-if" scenarios.

Private Jet Card Comparisons (PJCC) for Corporate Flight Departments enables corporate flight departments, finance departments, procurement specialists, and executive assistants who support business aviation users at their company to benchmark current solutions and identify potential suppliers of supplemental lift in a time-saving way.

The data, which covers over 1,500 program options, including specific aircraft type pricing, puts updated third-party data at their fingertips.

"Since 2017, Private Jet Card Comparisons has been providing independent third-party data enabling consumers to save time and buy confidently when accessing private aviation," says Founder and Editor-in-Chief Doug Gollan, adding, "The most difficult part about flying privately is comparing the various options. PJCC for Corporate Flight Departments is a resource to help both identify new supplemental lift solutions, benchmark current vendors, and enable fast access to data companies need for audits, and more."

Private Jet Card Comparisons' exclusive QUICK COMPARE FLIGHT PRICING enables users to compare domestic guaranteed flight pricing, including additional charges such as taxi time and daily minimums, making it easy to compare dynamic pricing for ad-hoc charter against guaranteed rate programs.

"Managers of corporate flight departments have a lot on their plates. Spending time requesting and gathering information and putting it into a format where they can compare options and benchmark current solutions shouldn't be one of them," Gollan notes.

PJCC for Corporate Flight Departments offers access to the Private Jet Card Comparisons database, which includes over 80 jet card, membership, and fractional program providers and more than 1,500 unique program offerings.

Subscribers can compare the programs by 65 variables, including:

- Company Size, Ownership, Leadership
- Specific Program Options (some companies have over a dozen)
- Upfront Program Cost
- Type of Pricing and Current Rates
- Membership Fees
- Acquisition Cost and Management Fees (Fractional)
- Aircraft Size & Types Offered
- Maximum Seat Guarantees
- Fuel Surcharges
- Service Areas and Surcharges
- Sourcing Model (Fleet, Broker, Hybrid)
- Aircraft Age Guarantees
- How Flights are Priced (Estimate vs. Actual Flight Time)
- Segment Minimum Charges
- Daily Minimum Charges
- Daily Access Fees
- How Taxi Time is Charged
