

EM6000Auto Debuts Today at MATS 2026 as Trailer Security System Designed to Prevent Cargo Theft

EM6000Auto debuts today at MATS 2026, introducing a system designed to prevent trailer theft before it starts.

LOUISVILLE, KY, KY, UNITED STATES, March 27, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cargo theft across North America continues to rise, with industry estimates placing losses in the billions annually. As fleets and insurers face increasing pressure, attention is shifting toward preventive solutions rather than post-theft recovery.

At the Mid-America Trucking Show (MATS 2026), Trinetra Guard is introducing EM6000Auto, a trailer-mounted system designed to prevent unauthorized trailer movement.

Developed in cooperation with JB Hunt, one of the largest transportation companies in North America, the system represents a new approach to trailer security.

Today marks a shift from cargo theft detection to prevention"

□ SHIFTING FROM RECOVERY TO PREVENTION

Most existing cargo security technologies focus on:

- GPS tracking
- telematics alerts
- post-theft recovery

However, these solutions operate after theft has already occurred.

EM6000Auto introduces a different model.

If an unauthorized tractor attempts to move the trailer, the trailer does not move.

The system physically secures the trailer by locking down the landing gear, preventing unauthorized movement before theft can occur.

EM6000Auto combines:

- trailer immobilization
- landing gear automation
- GPS visibility and alerts

This integration of physical control and telematics intelligence may represent a new category in fleet security technology.
