

American IRA Hosts Haley Gant for Webinar on Getting Started with Self-Directed IRAs and Private Lending

Learn how to start investing with a self-directed IRA and use private lending strategies—even with smaller accounts.

SIOUX FALLS, SD, UNITED STATES, April 21, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ --

American IRA announced that it will host an upcoming educational webinar featuring Haley Gant, mortgage loan officer, real estate investor, and former Certified IRA Services Professional. The webinar will focus on introducing self-directed IRAs and private lending strategies, with an emphasis on helping investors get started, including those with smaller account balances.

According to American IRA, the session will provide an overview of how self-directed retirement accounts can be used for alternative investments, along with practical considerations for compliance and risk management. Gant will draw on her experience working with investors to outline common mistakes, key rules, and considerations for building an investment approach aligned with long-term financial goals.

The webinar will also examine how Roth IRAs may be used in private lending strategies, including general concepts related to tax-free growth and income potential. In addition, Gant will share insights from her experience in real estate investing and lending to provide context for how these strategies are applied in practice.

The presentation is intended for both new and experienced investors seeking a clearer understanding of self-directed investing and private lending within retirement accounts.

What You'll Learn:

1. Starting Small Accounts

Learn how to begin investing with a self-directed IRA—even with limited funds—and take your first steps with confidence.

2. Protecting Your IRA

Understand key rules, avoid common mistakes, and stay compliant while maximizing investment opportunities.

3. Roth IRA Lending

Explore real-world insights on using a Roth IRA for private lending and applying these strategies with confidence.

Event: April 22nd, at 12:00 PM ET
