Through this relationship, Dynamic Benchmarking will power ASAE's next generation of benchmarking capabilities enhancing how ASAE delivers meaningful, data-driven insights to its members. By leveraging Dynamic Benchmarking's advanced benchmarking and analytics platform, ASAE will be able to provide a robust, intuitive, and interactive benchmarking experience for its members.

The collaboration will enable ASAE members to more easily uncover best practices, compare performance metrics, and make informed decisions backed by trusted industry data. Members will also gain access to real-time insights, customizable reporting, and interactive dashboards designed to help associations better understand their performance and navigate an evolving landscape with confidence.

"Benchmarking has long been one of the most valuable ways we help association leaders understand their performance and identify opportunities for growth," said ASAE President and CEO Michelle Mason, FASAE, CAE, AAiP. "Through our collaboration with Dynamic Benchmarking, we are significantly enhancing that capability – making it easier for our members to access real-time, actionable insights and translate data into smarter, more strategic decisions for their organizations."

Together, Dynamic Benchmarking and ASAE are creating a stronger foundation for fact-based decision making helping association leaders turn collective industry data into actionable intelligence.

“We are honored and excited to help ASAE deliver a robust Benchmarking platform,” Ray McDonald, President of Dynamic Benchmarking. “Association executives understand the value of good data and the importance it plays in good decision making.”

Dynamic Benchmarking has a proven track record of helping organizations harness the power of comparative data to identify trends, optimize performance, and demonstrate value. Through this collaboration, ASAE reinforces its commitment to delivering innovative tools and resources that empower association leaders to make data-informed decisions.

The enhanced benchmarking platform will launch in April 2026 with data collection for the Association Compensation & Benefits Report, with additional updates and resources planned throughout the year.
