“I’m proud to be able to help educate families about the immigration process,” McCranie said. “These are life-changing decisions, and people deserve to understand how the system works so they can move forward with confidence and protect their families.”

Your Path To Freedom (3rd Edition) explains the immigration process in plain, easy-to-understand language, helping readers navigate complex procedures while avoiding common mistakes.

McCranie and his firm have represented clients from across the United States and around the world, including families from Mexico, Brazil, Chile, France, Great Britain, Korea, and Azerbaijan.

He is a three-time #1 Best-Selling Author, has been featured in USA Today, and has appeared as a legal expert on NBC, ABC, FOX, CW, and WB network affiliates, as well as on programs such as I-Crime and Crime Exposé.

Through his work, McCranie has built a reputation for providing professional, compassionate, and dedicated representation, helping families navigate the immigration process while keeping their long-term goals in focus.
