

Celebrate Sakura Haruno's Birthday at NARUTO&BORUTO Shinobi-Zato

Visit the Hidden Leaf Village in Japan and Unleash Your "Shannaro!" Punch Experience the World of NARUTO & BORUTO in The Land of the Rising Sun

AWAJI, JAPAN, March 26, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Located on the stunning Awaji Island in Hyogo Prefecture, Nijigen no Mori is a must-visit destination for anime fans traveling to Japan. Just a short trip from Kobe, Osaka or Kansai International Airport (KIX) via the world-famous Akashi Kaikyo Bridge, this outdoor theme park offers a unique escape from the city.

Its most iconic attraction, "NARUTO & BORUTO Shinobi-Zato," is a massive, life-sized recreation of the "Hidden Leaf Village" (Konohagakure no Sato). Here, visitors don't just watch the story—they live it. You can stand before the legendary Hokage Rock, eat at the famous Ramen Ichiraku, and test your skills in physical and mental trials across the "Heaven Scroll" (Ten No Maki) and "Earth Scroll" (Chi No Maki) attractions. It's an immersive journey where you become a shinobi and step directly into the world of the hit anime.

Limited Two-Day Event: Sakura's Birthday "Shannaro!" Punch Challenge

To celebrate the birthday of one of the series' most beloved characters, Sakura Haruno, a special event will be held for two days only: March 28 and 29, 2026.

Channel your inner chakra and test your strength in the "Shannaro! Show Off Your Punching Power!" challenge. This is an exciting event that both adults and kids can enjoy, where participants use a punching machine to measure their power—just like Sakura's legendary superhuman strength.

The top scorer will receive an exclusive Sakura-themed item available only at Shinobi-Zato, and all participants will receive an original Sakura Haruno sticker. Pack your strength into your fist and unleash your ultimate punch this spring break.
