

A New Era Blasts Off at LEGOLAND ®

LEGOLAND® California and LEGOLAND® Florida Resorts Unveil an All-New Space-Themed Land, Bringing Out-of-This-World Fun for Families This Spring Break

CARLSBAD, CA, UNITED STATES, March 26, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A major new space-themed land launched at LEGOLAND, ushering in a new era of immersive storytelling, interactive technology, and elevated family thrills.

LEGOLAND Ambassador Julie Estrada highlighted the debut of LEGO Galaxy, including its first-ever indoor space-themed roller coaster where riders design their own spacecraft using interactive touchscreens before blasting off on a fully immersive interstellar journey. They also shared how the new land invites families to train as space cadets, explore hands-on play zones, build and launch rockets, and dine among the stars. With spring break approaching, it's the perfect way for families to travel and experience the new era of fun.
