Building on a successful inaugural year that drew hundreds of attendees, curated one-on-one meetings, and a packed room of investors, the Centri Capital Conference returns as a premier one-day event at the iconic Nasdaq MarketSite. The 2026 conference will bring together 500+ attendees, including institutional investors, industry leaders, and executives from over 50 participating companies across healthcare, life sciences, technology, AI, digital assets, fintech, and other high-growth sectors. Attendees can expect six industry panels, company presentations, fireside chats, and a networking reception.

The investor audience includes representation from investment banks, venture capital, private equity, investment firms, hedge funds, family offices, asset managers, and lenders.

As Marketing Partner, B2i Digital will expand investor reach through targeted digital campaigns and connect participating companies with investors through its marketing platform and social media channels.

"Our Featured Conferences program is designed to give participating companies significant exposure before, during, and after the event," said David Shapiro, Chief Executive Officer of B2i Digital. "Following the overwhelmingly positive response to last year's inaugural conference, we are confident that attendance at the Centri Capital Conference will be enormously valuable for companies looking to connect with high-impact investors."

"Last year's inaugural conference exceeded our expectations and confirmed that there is strong demand for a focused, well-curated capital markets event at Nasdaq," said Michael Aiello, CEO & Managing Partner of Centri Business Consulting. "We've expanded the 2026 program with more presenting companies, more investor meetings, and more opportunities for meaningful connections. We look forward to welcoming everyone back on April 14."
