

Gailey Enterprises Expands into Palm Beach, Strengthening Presence in Luxury Homes and Wellington Equestrian Properties

Gailey Enterprises Real Estate has expanded into Palm Beach—positioning as a dominant force in luxury homes in South Florida and Wellington equestrian estates.

PALM BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, May 7, 2026

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Headquartered in Ocala, Florida, and operating across multiple key markets throughout the Southeast, Gailey Enterprises Real Estate, a premier luxury real estate brokerage specializing in coastal, equestrian, and high-end residential properties, has helped over 20,000 families buy and sell real estate and has surpassed $6 billion in closed sales. The firm is widely recognized for its results-driven marketing, white-glove service, and expertise in lifestyle-focused properties.

This expansion into Palm Beach is a strategic move backed by existing momentum.

The company already has experienced agents actively working in the Palm Beach area, representing clients in both buying and selling transactions. With several deals underway and a growing client base seeking luxury homes in Palm Beach County, the opening of a dedicated office formalizes Gailey Enterprises' footprint in one of the most competitive real estate markets in the nation.

"We're not entering Palm Beach—we're just making it official and expanding what's already working," said Rhonda Gailey, Founder and Broker of Gailey Enterprises Real Estate. "We have agents on the ground, active clients, and real traction in this market. Palm Beach is a natural extension of our brand and our expertise in high-end, lifestyle-driven real estate."

The expansion also strengthens the firm's deep connection to the equestrian world, particularly in nearby Wellington—home to one of the largest and most prestigious equestrian communities in the world.

Gailey Enterprises has built a strong reputation in equestrian real estate through its longstanding presence in Ocala, Florida, known as the “Horse Capital of the World.” That expertise translates directly into the Wellington equestrian property market, where buyers demand specialized knowledge of barns, acreage, training facilities, and proximity to premier venues.

“Our equestrian background gives us a unique advantage in Wellington and throughout Palm Beach County,” Gailey added. “We understand the nuances of these properties—from functionality to lifestyle—and we know how to position them to the right buyers globally.”

The new Palm Beach presence will focus on representing clients in:

- Luxury waterfront homes in Palm Beach
- High-end residential real estate in South Florida
- Wellington equestrian estates and horse farms
- Lifestyle-driven properties throughout Palm Beach County

This expansion aligns with the company’s continued growth and national visibility through its television series, Selling with The Gaileys, which showcases the firm’s expertise in luxury real estate, business, and family-driven success. The official launch was in coordination with the filming of the show at The International Palm Beach Boat Show that ‘Gailey’ attended as part of their 4th episode filming due to air in May.

As demand for Palm Beach luxury real estate and South Florida lifestyle properties continues to rise, Gailey Enterprises Real Estate is positioned to deliver elevated marketing, strategic exposure, and proven results for buyers and sellers alike.

“Palm Beach is one of the most dynamic luxury markets in the country,” said Gailey. “And we’re bringing a level of marketing, exposure, and execution that stands out—not just locally, but nationally.”
