

New Mentorship Program for European DeepTech Startups

TALLINN, ESTONIA, March 31, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Qubit Labs is excited to announce its partnership with ISE Group Accelerator and the launch of DeepTech Unlocked - a Mentorship Program designed for European DeepTech Startups.

Why this conversation now?

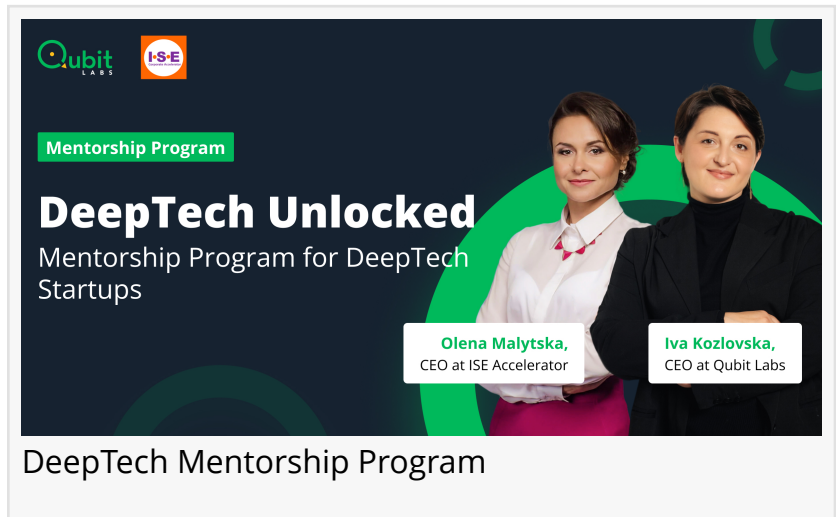

The R&D cycles are long. Funding is difficult to secure. First sales are hard to close, and building the right partnerships takes time. DeepTech Unlocked provides founders with practical tools, expert guidance, and networking opportunities to tackle these challenges in deep technology ventures - from securing funding to closing first sales.

“After decades of working with startups, we know all about their early-stage pains. DeepTech Unlocked Mentorship Program covers them all and gives actionable support to innovators. Startups will learn from practitioners - actual cases and practical knowledge only,” said Iva Kozlovska, CEO of Qubit Labs.

Who Can Participate?

The program welcomes founders working in the following areas:

- Artificial Intelligence
- Quantum Technologies
- Robotics
- Advanced Materials
- Climate Tech
- Health Tech
- Space Tech
- Semiconductor Technologies
