

Pure IP Acquires Vive Communications to Enhance UcaaS Offering, an IT ExchangeNet Transaction

Vive Communications, an all-in-one VoIP and collaboration platform, has been acquired by Pure IP. Vive Communications was advised by IT ExchangeNet.

BRAINTREE, MA, UNITED STATES, April 7, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- IT ExchangeNet, a leading M&A advisory firm serving mid-market VoIP, UCaaS, and IT-enabled businesses, today announced the acquisition of Vive Communications, a unified communications and collaboration solutions provider by Pure IP, a BCM One company, who is a global provider of voice, network and unified integration solutions for mid-to-enterprise businesses.

Founded in 2001, Vive built a strong reputation for delivering comprehensive UCaaS, VoIP, and contact center solutions to enterprises across the U.S. The acquisition strengthens Pure IP's unified communications portfolio and expands its national presence, adding Vive's deep technical expertise and customer-centric service model to its growing platform.

"IT ExchangeNet was instrumental in facilitating this process, leveraging their deep industry expertise to identify qualified buyers from their global network," said David Dart, founder of Vive. "The team was disciplined and methodical, working through every stage of the engagement to ensure a successful outcome."

Sandy Preizler, CEO of BCM One added "This acquisition strengthens UCaaSone and enhances our ability to deliver scalable, high-performance communications solutions built for today's hybrid workforce."

Vive was also supported by 9th Avenue Advisory Services and ExecHQ.
