pressure to turn workforce management into a strategic advantage, not just an administrative function. Drawing on more than 20 years of extensive Professional Employer Organization (PEO) expertise, AlphaStaff recognized the need to evolve beyond traditional services and expand into a comprehensive Human Capital Management (HCM) model to meet this demand. As part of this strategic evolution, AlphaStaff has rebranded as AlphaStaffHCM, aligning its name with its expanded capabilities and strengthening market visibility.

AlphaStaffHCM announced the expansion of its HCM offerings, including enhanced recruiting support, advanced talent optimization tools, workforce analytics, and expanded technology integration capabilities designed to help organizations improve hiring, retention, and overall workforce performance. This transformation, shaped by client feedback and growing demand for more integrated workforce solutions, reflects the company’s broader role as a long-term strategic workforce partner.

“Organizations have diverse business needs,” said Cristina Bouchard, CEO of AlphaStaffHCM. “Our expanded HCM solutions deliver flexible, end-to-end HR support, analytics, and advisory services, all while using their current HRIS or transitioning to a new, advanced platform.”

The expanded HCM solutions build upon AlphaStaffHCM’s established service model by adding:

- Enhanced recruiting and talent acquisition support
- Talent optimization and workforce development tools
- Data-driven workforce analytics and reporting
- Integrated solutions designed to work seamlessly within existing client workflows

These capabilities are intended to help organizations make more informed workforce decisions, improve employee retention, and better align talent strategies with business growth goals.

Despite the expanded services and brand evolution, AlphaStaffHCM's core service model remains unchanged. Clients will continue to receive personalized support, including the company's hallmark four-hour response time, along with the same dedicated service teams.

"No action is required from our clients," Bouchard added. "Our existing relationships, services, and support teams remain the same. This evolution simply provides additional tools and resources to help businesses achieve their workforce goals today and into the future."

AlphaStaffHCM plans to continue introducing new solutions in the months ahead as part of its ongoing commitment to innovation and client success.
